CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION AT WAINWRIGHT

At a large convention fully representative of each division in the Wainwright riding, Mr. G. I. Hudson was unanimously nominated as Conservative standard-bearer for the constituency, on November 16th, Mr. Hudson received a great ovation from the gathering which seemed to hold him in the highest respect, and although the nomination period was extended to allow of other names being put forward Mr. Hudson's was the only name not before the convention, Mr. Hudson thanked the convention for the honor it had done him, and promised to do his best to be worthy of the confidence it had shown towards him.

Officers for the riding were chosen as follows:

Hon. Pres. Right Hon. Arthur Meighen; Hon. Vice-Pres. A. A. McGillivray, K.C.; Pres. Mr. Bailey, Wainwright; Vice-Pres. for the eastern division Mr. Ches. Ryall, Vice-Pres. for western division Mr. McPhee, Jarrow, with Mr. Watkinson, Wainwright, as (Continued on page four)

"HER MARRIAGE VOW"

Come and see Monte Blue and Beverly Bayne in "Her Marriage Vow" supported by other celebrated-screen stars. A story you will not forget. A story that shows how one false step can ruin a life which might otherwise have been brimful of happiness.

Just how the drabness of marriage can be remedied is demonstrated in this Warner Bros. Classic of the screen. To be shown at Chauvin next Monday and at Edgerton next Tuesday. Good music.

NOTES FROM NORTH EAST

The new School was opened in Marsden last Monday Week.

The new barn for Sherlock Lake School is now completed. Several of the ratepayers by voluntary labour made this possible.

Xmas Tree dates are as under: Artland School December 19th, Stanmore School Christmas Tree to be held December 17th. Sherlock Lake School December 21st.

A CHAIN OF CONTACTS

If you, as a merchant, could be constantly meeting new prospective customers, you could keep your business healthy and flourishing without advertising.

But the main why ADVERTISING is a sound paying proposition is because it does this missionary work for you, constantly, efficiently, at low cost and leaves you free to render personal service and to plan further business development.

Look into the value to you of advertising in The Chauvin Chronicle from a business building point of view. Talk it over with us.

INDIVIDUALISM VERSUS CO-OPERATION

To an interested onlooker and one who believes that in organization and co-operation lies the means of lifting Agriculture to its proper place among the industries of the country, the spectacle presented by many farmers around Edgerton during the past few weeks has been a very heartening and depressing one.

An outside stock-buyer came into the town, and judging by appearances these farmers vied with each other in seeing who who could first land their stock into his hands.

The fact that he paid his own price, that he bought just what he wanted and no more, that he went out when he had his quota, and will not return until he feels like it, that in the mean time the country can hunt its own market, did not appear to weigh one bit with the anxious sellers.

The fact also that the buyer is diametrically opposed to every effort on the part of the farmers to obtain control of the selling end of their product, and that nothing would please him better than to see every such effort broken up, never to recover, did not deter them from doing their bit to give him business. Such a line of action can only have one end, and that is to place the primary produced at the mercy of the buyer. The same old story that has been repeated again and again in the United States, is being repeated here. The short range vision and suspicious nature of the farmer is causing him to play right into his opponents' hand, and then he will want to condemn and would like to kick the man that squeezes him. The last man that he imagines should be condemned, is himself.

At Edgerton he had two other alternatives, he could have sold to the private buyer who lives here permanently, or, which is the businesslike and logical thing to do, he would have consigned his stock to the Co-operative shipper and had his stock bring their value on the open market.

Co-operation is so obviously to the advantage of the primary producer both in buying and selling that his reluctance to adopt it can only be attributed to rank individualism, which leads him to think that in his weak economic position and with his sadly limited knowledge, he can do even battle with organized business.

A CNRIOUS ECHO

Amour the most noted echoes is that heard from the suspension bridge across the Menal Strait. The sound of a blow from a hammer on one of the main piers of the structure is returned in succession from each of the cross-beams that support the roadway and from the support from the opposite pier at the distance of 576 feet, in addition to which the sound is many times repeated between the water and the roadway at the rate of twenty-eight times in five seconds.

AT WAINWRIGHT

Secretary.
An executive committee of 12 was also named.

The convention was then addressed by the leader of the new provincial Conservatives Mr. A. A. McGillivray, K.C. Calgary.

In a masterly address Mr. McGillivray arrayed facts and figures showing the position of Alberta today, in regard of our burden of debt and also the vast potentialities of our province, of properly administered.

Putting the provincial debt at 57 millions, at the close of the Liberal regime, he said that its successor—the Greenfield government—had gone in as a protest of the province against the extravagance of the Liberals.

Pledging itself to a platform of economy and the demand that Alberta should develop her natural resources, the new party had had the support of the polls of many good Conservatives and even Liberals, who dispaired of a change of heart in the Liberal government. That was over four years ago, and today so far from balancing the budget as promised the Greenfield group government had increased the provincial debt by twenty millions and was still going strong in expenditures. Mr. McGillivray showed how duplication of officials and service in the way of a separate superintendent or inspector for every little thing down to 'George Headley's bees' was piling up the debt and giving little or nothing in return. Instead of reducing taxation as promised they had actually shown great ingenuity in devising new taxes. "And what" said Mr. McGillivray, "of those natural resources whose return was one of their most emphasized 'planks.' Tracing the attitude of the Dominion and Provincial Premiers on this question from start to finish, by means of the telegrams exchanged, he showed that in spite of prolonged visits to Ottawa, long telegrams, etc., the Greenfield group had had to submit sulkily to a "reproachful" wire from Mackenzie King to the effect that as his ministers had almost all left the capital in a "much needed" vacation it was impossible to do anything until the natural resources until the next session of parliament!

Only this, after four years of palaver! Speaking of Mr. Greenfield's attitude on the question of immigration he read extracts from Greenfield letter to the financial Post, Montreal in which Mr. Greenfield expressed full approval of a strong immigration for the West. He contrasted this with the resolution moved in the House by Premier Greenfield and seconded by Hon. Mrs. Parly which was to the effect that we leave the Dominion Government to formulate an immigration policy for the west.

All this with full knowledge of the fact that the King Government's immigration policy had shown itself to be a failure and had not been supported by the Progressive group at Ottawa.

Speaking as leader of the new provincial Conservative party,

Mr. McGillivray stated his policy which included balancing the budget the first year,—vigorous demand until successful, of the natural resources and the development of these by ways best calculated to increase the prosperity of the province as a whole. Only by an increase in population, bringing impetus in the form of new industries, and home markets could the burden of taxation be lessened by distribution, and for this reason he would constitute himself head of a provincial im-

Irma M.L.A. For Wainwright Consistency Marries former Alberta Girl's Work Sec'y

First Presbyterian Church in Edmonton was filled to overflowing with friends including throngs of girls, on Thursday afternoon of last week when Miss Katie McCrimmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCrimmon became the bride of Russell Love, M.L.A. son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Love of Irma. The bride was formerly provincial girls' work secretary for C.G.I.T. work. Consequently her marriage was of special interest to girls of the city. Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of the University of Alberta.

The bridal procession was headed by three little flower girls: Annabelle McCrimmon in pale blue; Isabel Broad in pale pink and Flora Francis Lawlor in orchid crepe de chine. The bride flowed on the arm of her father, wearing a beautiful gown of white satin brocade charmant with pearl and brilliant trimmings and a train of georgette finished with an iridescent butterfly. Her veil was trimmed with seed pearls and was arranged in fan shape held with a wreath of orange blossoms. Catherine Broad was a dainty train bearer wearing a lilac crepe de chine frock. The four little girls were nieces of the bride. All wore tulle chapel trains trimmed with daisy erysanthemums and carried baskets of flowers.

Mrs. T. Lawlor, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She was gowned in can de nell brocade crepe with ostrich trimming and wore a black hat.

Mr. Arthur McCrimmon attended the bridegroom.

Mrs. McCrimmon, mother of the bride, wore black satin with gold lace. Mrs. W. H. Love of Irma, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in black charmant satin and silk lace. Mrs. R.S. Broad, sister of the bride, wore cerise cut velvet with ermine fur and black picture hat.

The ushers were Dr. Broad, Mr. Wilkie Whitlaw and Mr. Robert A. Anderson, clerk of the legislative assembly.

The Rev. Dr. McQueen assisted by the Rev. Dr. Tuttle, conducted the ceremony. Mr. Vernon Barford presided at the organ and played Wagner's Bridal March as the wedding procession entered the church. Miss Mamie Simpson sang "All Joy Be Thine." Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bride party left the church, and as they drove away. The C.G.I.T. chorus was sung by the united groups of C.G.I.T.

About 50 relatives accompanied the bridal party home where after the luncheon was served Dr. McQueen proposed the health of the bride, to which the bridegroom responded. The toast to the bride's mother was proposed by Dr. Tuttle and responded to by Mr. McCrimmon. Mr. Spencer M.P., proposed the health of the bridegroom's mother. Mr. W. H. Love, father of the bridegroom responded. The toast of the matron of honor and bride's family was proposed by Dr. Broad, response being made by Mr. T. Whitlaw Hamilton.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink roses and carnations. The wedding cake was placed on a side table and surmounted by a silver vase holding rose buds. The tea table was centered with a silver basket of pink roses surrounded by four silver rose vases, the gifts of the Calgary board of C.G.I.T.

During the afternoon, Mrs. McCrimmon and Mrs. Broad, assisted and were assisted by the Misses Helen Armstrong, Ruth Hetherington and Alice Moon, Mrs. Wilkie Whitlaw, Mrs. Zola Campbell, Mrs. Jessie Hallies and Mrs. Broad.

About one hundred and fifty guests attended the reception in the evening. Miss Gertrude Young and Mrs. Farrell were in charge of the rooms and Mrs. W. H. Keleher was the usher. Mrs. A. E. Ottewell Mrs. Patriquin, Mrs. H. H. Tory and Mrs. Perren Baker presided over the supper table and were assisted by the Misses Margaret Gold, Mamie Simpson, Mabel Nix, Dorothy Kinney, Henrietta Smith, Ruth Hetherington, Lucille Whitlaw, Helen Armstrong, Miss Hamilton and Phyllis Hudson. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Morgan,

The Misses Connie Smith and Mae Massie were in charge of the room where the handsome gifts were displayed. Miss Gretta Simpson and her orchestra discoursed music throughout the evening.

The vocalists during the afternoon and evening were Miss Helen Armstrong, Miss Hetherington and Mrs. Broad, accompanied by Mrs. Hamilton, L.R.A.M., Miss Margaret Gold, accompanied by Mrs. W. Inglis, and Miss Mamie Simpson, Mrs. G. Kirkpatrick played a piano solo.

The bridegrooms gift to the bride was a Hudson seal coat, Sable trimmed; to the bride, Miss Simpson, a gold pin; to the groomsmen, a gold pin; to the bridesmaid, a gold chain and pendant, to the ushers, gold cuff links; to the train bearer and flower girls, gold rings. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a gold ring.

The happy couple left on the midnight Canadian National train for Vancouver. The bride's traveling costume was of elephant brocade, cloth trimmed with electric blue with hat and scarf to match.

The Social and Dance held in Artland School last Monday evening was pronounced a great success by those who attended. Everyone had a good time and the music was good. The proceeds amounted to round $20.00.

We understand that Mr. A. W. Wright of Artland is running for the Reevship this December.

Nomination day is the first Monday in December, and the election the week following.

The ladies of Sherlock Lake Club, "surprised" Mrs. John Snell last Saturday afternoon, and presented her with a set of aluminum ware.

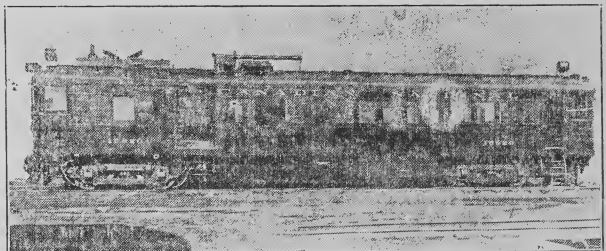

If reports are correct the Annual meeting of ratepayers promises to be unusually lively this year.

NEW OIL-ELECTRIC CAR ON CANADIAN NATIONAL

ARRIVAL in Western Canada of the new Canadian National Railways oil-electric car on an endurance run from Montreal to Vancouver under its own power, and its subsequent return to Edmonton where it was placed in service on the Edmonton-Vermilion run, exciting a mixed train service has created much interest among railway men and the traveling public generally. The new car, shown above, carries approximately 60 passengers, in addition to baggage and express, and made a record run to Vancouver. Other cars of similar type, and also of an articulated type, carrying 120 passengers, have been placed in service in Eastern Canada, where they are giving excellent service at reduced operating cost. More cars are now being built and others are to be sent to the west for branch-line service. The car operates on electricity, generated by a fuel oil engine of airplane type, and the working out of this method of motive power by Canadian National engineers gives promise of great reduction in fuel and operating costs. Each of these cars is capable of handling a trailer when necessary.

Change Their Name and Country

These four smiling bonny lassies are not in the least depressed at leaving the rugged shores of 'Auld Scotia' far in the background. They seem overjoyed at the prospect of starting life anew in various parts of the great Canadian west. But more than that, they will have to go with them through life, sturdy Canadian husbands. The young ladies are just a few of a party of Scottish bride who sailed recently from Glasgow to Canada on the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama. The young man with them is Robert Watson, editor of the Beaver, well-known Canadian poet and author. Perhaps he has been telling his eager audience of four some tall yarns; but even the plain, unvarnished truth about the Dominion would no doubt be enough to account for the gay spirit in evidence.

A TIGER TALE

by W. J. BRANDS

When I first went to Assam, twenty years ago, the country swarmed with tigers. Wherever one went one heard of tigers and their doings. To shoot one of these kings of the forest was nothing extraordinary—just like catching a big fish.

month! In his first excitement he dropped his gun, which lay across his knees, and as the great brute dashed him away he yelled wildly: "The tiger has got me!" This cry, fortunately, awoke his friends, who sat up, rubbing their eyes sleepily, just in time to see him being led unresistingly through the garden hedge. To shoot at the tiger was dangerous, as if wounded the animal would immediately have turned upon ed the story may find it interesting if I briefly recall the details. Peter Barry lived in a bungalow that had been built almost level with the surrounding garden. One day his night-watchman reported to him that a tiger crossed the garden practically every night. Since he had lately lost quite a number of pet dogs, he decided to sit up for the unwelcome visitor. He invited three or four friends to join him and

FLAX GROWING IN CANADA

The year 1924 has been the most encouraging for Canadian flax growers since 1920. The growing and retting conditions in Western Ontario, where practically all the Canadian fibre flax is at present produced, were very favourable, with the result that an exceptionally high yield of fibre and seed has been obtained. Some commercial acres have produced as high as 339 pounds of fibre and 16 bushels of mill-run seed per acre.

PETROLEUM PRODUCTION IN CANADA

Crude petroleum production in Canada during 1924, as reported by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, amounted to 160,773 barrels valued at $467,400, while during the preceding twelve months 170,169 barrels valued at $522,015 were produced. Drilling activity continued in the Southwest and Wainwright fields of Alberta. In Ontario, the aputra port had only been established a short time, and a night goods-train used to run between Tinsukia Junction and Goalhati. It was a favourite scheme of the native train-crews to invite unsuspecting compatriots to have a cheap ride with them. Arriving in the grassy plain near Monthola, the train used to stop, and the dented stowaways were given the choice of handing over all their belongings or of being put off. They generally allowed themselves to be robbed, as it was well known that the surrounding region was infested with tigers. The station had to be closed for nearly two years, his horror that it was the tiger which held his left hand in its

Going up to Middle Assam, I was introduced to Peter Barry, a tea-planter, whose terrible experience was published some time later in THE WIDE WORLD MAGAZINE. Readers who miss-

Fine Hunters From the Emerald Isle

Ireland is quickly being adapted to pursuits of peace. Agricultural fairs and stock shows are the order of the day, and recently Irish bred cows were announced among the finest in the world.

But there is another thing which is due to bring the little island to the attention of every country in the world where the thrill of the chase and the clarion call of the horn on still, cool countryside in autumn have a place in the heart of the people.

When the trees are bare, days begin to get shorter and cooler, the ground is covered profusely with brown and russet-ey'd leaves, and an atmosphere of contentment seems to settle down. The hurried frenzy for summer sports is allowed to subside. There is a universal desire for "something different".

Hunting seems to be exactly the thing, and in Canada this sport is becoming more popular each succeeding year. Strong, powerful horses, known as Irish hunters, are being brought here for that purpose.

These horses are noted for their stamina, speed and beauty. Long slim bodies, wiry tapering legs, there is in them the heart of the hunter who never gives up. Thomas Lawton, of Cork, has shipped four specially selected Irish horses recently, by the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama, the second shipment to Canada within the last few months. These horses were purchased by Hugh Wilson, of Oakville, Ontario, one of the largest importers in Canada.

It is understood that more orders are to be placed by Mr. Wilson and other Canadian importers in the near future. (1) Shows hunters out of the woods and before being led to the sheds. (2) Horse being loaded on board the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama in special box crates.

BEARS LOSE FEAR OF MAN

BLACK and brown bears at Jasper National Park have become so tame that they frequently visit Jasper Park Lodge grounds in search of food, and, according to the report of Col. S. Maynard Rogers, Park Superintendent, become so bold that they break into cottages and camps for food and have to be destroyed. Photographs show black and brown bears at one of the construction camps at Jasper, where they have learned to regard man as their friend rather than their enemy.—C.N.R. Photos.

SWINE CLUB CONTESTS

All the way from Grande Prairie,

400 miles north-west of Edmonton, two boys aged 14 and 15, who had never been out of the north country and who had never travelled by train came into Edmonton recently and captured the championship for the best carload of pigs in the contest for boys and girls pig clubs in central and Northern Alberta. These boys, as a result, have been given a trip all the way to Toronto to attend the Royal Show as guests of the C.P.R. and have also won the challenge trophy by that railway company. They were trained by A. R. Jindson, district agriculturist for the Peace River district. The boys in this winning team were Oscar Gudlansson, aged 15, who went to the Peace River country from Saskatchewan at the age of one year, and Vern Jenson, aged 14, born at Beaver Lodge, near Grande Prairie.

More than 95 entries of individual pigs were made in the contest this year. The earload competition resulted as follows: Grande Prairie, first; Vegreville, second; Czar-Hardisty team, third; Sturgeon, fourth; Sedgewick, fifth; Alliance, sixth; Red Deer-Olds, seventh; Killam, eighth.

The winning team in the C.N.R. competition for the trip to Toronto, were Vegreville, which wins first place for the second year in succession. Sturgeon, second; Alliance, third; Battle River, fourth. The winners in the C.P.R. competition were Grande Prairie, first; Sedgewick, second; Red Deer, third; Hardisty, fourth; Olds, fifth; Czar, sixth; Killam, seventh.

The inter-club contest was decided as follows: Sturgeon, 1st; Grande Prairie, 2nd; Sedgewick, 3rd; Red Deer, 4th; Olds, 5th; Alliance, 6th; Czar, 7th; Vegreville, 8th; Hardisty, 9th; Killam, 10th; Battle River, 11th.

THE EIGHTY-FOVE POUND LAMB SUITS THE MARKET

At a recently held lamb fair organized by a County Agronomist and carried out with the cooperation of the federal Live Stock Branch in the province of Quebec, out of 230 lambs, 187 were rated as first quality bringing the top price for the day. These lambs, consisting of ewes and wethers, ranged between 70 and 100 lbs, averaging 85 lbs per head. The remainder of the stock were small and unfinished, ranging around 60 lbs per head, and sold at from one to two cents per lb less money.

Little Phyllis admitted her sister's call, and after entertaining him for a few moments, went upstairs.

According to the final count for the Battle River Constituency H. E. Spencer (the sitting member has easily beaten his opponents, the returns being Lee 1690; Morrison 1624; Spencer 5067. This gives Mr. Spencer a majority over his nearest opponent of 3777 And a clear majority over North of 1743.

The electors of Battle River evidently appreciate the sincere work that Mr. Spencer has given during the past four years and have no desire to make a change.

Here and There

The resilience of a world cruise culminated in New York City recently when Dorothy Holmes O'Ryan, daughter of Major-General and Mrs. John F. O'Ryan, of New York, married Darwin Curtis, of Chicago. The couple met for the first time a year ago on board the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France which was then making a tour of the world. It is feared they had no eyes for the world marvels which were unveiled before them on the tour, since it is stated they fell in love at first sight and could only see each other. The marriage was performed by the Rev. Father Francis P. Duffy, chaplain of the "Fighting Sixty-ninth," a regiment commanded by the bride's father during the war.

Good reading for Canadian Pacific shareholders is furnished in the September statement of gross earnings, working expenses and net profits. It has been the most favorable month for the company in a long time. The gross earnings were $18,000,771, the greatest shown in any month since October, 1924. Operating expenses were $12,041,332 and the difference between the two, the net profits $6,557,519, an increase of $1,719,973 over the corresponding month of last year. Net earnings for the first three quarters of this year, ending September 30th, is $1,190,039 greater than the 1924 figures, despite a decrease in gross earnings of over four and a half million dollars. This was made possible by the company's policy of rigid economy.

General Sir Fabian Ware, G.C.B., of the Imperial War Museum, who has been in the United Kingdom since his return from the Canadian Pacific tour of Montreal, has expressed the hope that he would be able to come to Canada again in the near future. He could give the West some idea of the work of the Imperial War Commission in looking for the graves of western youths who perished during the war.

Robert L. Rice, Jr., of Boston, and J. Y. Cole, of Harvard, took big chances when they attempted to travel by canoe from Rouyn to Angliers at the end of October. Although they started in beautiful Indian summer weather they ran into a few hours into a bad storm which filled their canoe with half melted snow and almost froze them by unconsciousness. Fortunately they arrived in the nick of time at a fire-guard, but where they stayed a few days until the storm passed. They were prospecting in the neighborhood and were none the wiser for their perilous trip when they finally reached Montreal.

At Sturkey, New York Yankee pitcher, who organized the first inter-league baseball play, is now starting big game in New Hampshire, shot a moose with antlers averaging 50 inches and having 28 points, according to word received at Fredericton, N.B. Shawkey shot the moose the first day of the party spent in the woods. This information is conveyed by another party of hunters who passed the camp of the ball players at Nepisiquit Lakes. In the group are some of the best known players in the American League, Eddie Collins, Babe Ruth and Muddy Ruel being among them.

UNITED CHURCH PUTS ON DRIVE FOR BUDGET FUND

Throughout the Dominion a campaign is now under way to raise a Maintenance and Extension fund of $4,000,000 for the Educational, Missionary and benevolent work of the United Church of Canada. The sum aimed at combines the former annual budgets of the Presbyterian, Methodist, and Congregational churches and is to cover the period ending March 31st next. Of the total amount more than two-thirds is to be used for mission, school, and hospital work in Canada and foreign lands.

Alberta's share in this fund has been placed at $160,000 and a drive to raise the amount is being put on in all parts of the province by laymen's canvassing teams. The campaign has been carefully organized, and much interest is being shown in it all over Canada. Each congregation of the United Church has been allotted its share and it is believed that this objective can be reached.

Judge: "Do you know this woman well?"
Witness: "Do I not? She is the only one in our crowd who has had her hair bobbed."

"Do you drink coffee?" asked the doctor of a patient.
"Yes," says the reply.

"Coffee," continued the doctor, was a slow poison."
"Yes, very slow," replied the old man: "I have taken it daily for nearly sixty years."

NEW BRANCH OF W. I. OPENED AT HEATH

Mrs. McCrea, convener of the Wainwright Constituency of the Women's Institute and President of the Ribstone Branch, assisted by Mrs. Robinson, Secretary of Ribstone W. I. and Mrs. J. White of Ribstone opened a branch of the Women's Institute at Sligo school house, Heath, on Saturday November 21st. The name of the new branch is "Rose Willow." There was a good attendance and officers for all positions were elected.

To make glue that will resist the action of water, soak ordinary glue in water until it softens; remove it before it has lost its original form, and dissolve it in linseed oil over a slow fire until it is of the consistency of jelly. It can be used for "gluing any kind of material."

"Where did the eye hit him?" asked the doctor.

"At the junction of the dorsal and sacral plexus," replied the medical witness.

The foreman of the jury rose from his seat.

"Man and boy I've lived in these parts for fifty years," he protested ponderously, and I've never heard of 'the place.'"

An ideal in life is a wonderful asset to success. It is quite feasible that a man who always thinks great thoughts about life's work is almost beyond the possibility of failure.

The gardener at a large house approached the butler.

"Mortimer," he exclaimed, "you might point the fellow Darwin out to me the next time he comes to dinner."

"Darwin?" said the butler, looking perplexed.

"Yes, Darwin. I happened to hear the gun'nor say the other day that every time he looks at me his mind goes back to Darwin."

Latest In Medical Service On C. P. Lines

It is gradually being brought home to Mr. Average Man that the discomfort associated with ocean travel is but a bad dream of the past. Travelling across the Atlantic in five days in a luxurious cabin, with hot and cold water, lights, music, dancing, newspapers, radio and every desirable convenience of the day, it is hard to think of the time when it took weeks or months before a tiny schooner would reach America after fighting its way over each wave, threatened with disaster by every wind.

Ocean travel has reached the point of perfection where even invalids and those taken sick suddenly can be given all the medical advantages of shore hospitals. The ship hospitals are as modern and up-to-the-minute as those on shore, but of necessity, are more restricted.

Not even the finest of man's calculations are sometimes upset by the uncontrollable sea. On the Canadian Pacific liner Montcalm recently, a passenger became dangerously ill and an immediate operation was thought necessary. At the time a fierce storm was raging. Commander Gibbons, R.N.R., ordered the ship stopped for two hours and Dr. Girvan, P.R.C.S., ship's surgeon, aided by Dr. D. E. Ross, of Montreal, performed the operation. The woman is now fully recovered.

Dr. Girvan remembers occasions when conditions were not so satisfactory. During the war, in Mesopotamia, he cut out the appendix of a native with a pen-knife when he could not get the patient to the hospital on time. In the wilds of Scotland, performing an operation for appendicitis, the man holding the candle fainted. Dr. Girvan summoned a woman to carry on. The patient recovered.

"Your dog howled all night."
"That's a sign of death. Whose dog?"
"Your dog, if he howls again tonight!"
